Hi Tumi,

Thank you for your response.

Please note that these premium .com domain names are publicly listed across major aftermarket networks (including GoDaddy and Namecheap). Because they are actively available to the public, any interested third party can acquire them at any time.

If FP Trading is seriously considering these domains for your upcoming platforms or marketing projects, I highly recommend expediting the internal review with your backend team so we don't miss the opportunity.

Looking forward to your update.

Hi Tumi,

Thank you for your continued updates on ticket #25882. As this proposal has now been under review for over six weeks without a substantive response, I'd like to move things forward with concrete details.

Please find the pricing and registration dates for each domain below:

- FullyFX.com — $3,055 — Registered 2020
- ForexPenny.com — $2,975 — Registered 2019
- ForexDu.com — $2,945 — Registered 2019
- ForexZe.com — $2,695 — Registered 2019
- VibraFX.com — $2,467 — Registered 2020
- ForexRays.com — $2,395 — Registered 2019
- ForexPre.com — $2,295 — Registered 2019
- NiseForex.com — $2,195 — Registered 2020
- ForexClash.com — $2,095 — Registered 2020
- FXworkers.com — $2,095 — Registered 2020

For context, based on GoDaddy market data, "Forex" and "FX" are high-value keywords, with average sale prices ranging from $2,352 to $3,342. All the domains above are well-aged (registered in 2019/2020), which adds brand authority and SEO value beyond what a newly registered domain would offer.

Multi-domain discounts are available:

- 15% off for a 2-domain bundle
- 20% off for 3 or more domains

Transfers can be completed securely via GoDaddy escrow, and cryptocurrency payment is also accepted for faster processing.

Given that these domains are publicly listed and available to any interested buyer, I'd appreciate a clear decision — or at minimum, a response from someone on your acquisitions or business development team who can evaluate this directly.

I'm happy to answer any questions on pricing, the transfer process, or any specific domain in the meantime.

Best regards,
Taseer Ahmed

Subject: Inquiry regarding the status of proposal (Ticket #25882)

Dear Tumi,

I hope you are well.

I am writing to respectfully request clarification on the status of my proposal regarding the domain names I shared previously.

I have been in contact with you regarding this since early June, and while I appreciate the automated updates on ticket #25882, I am concerned that my proposal may not have been reviewed by a human team member. Given the length of time that has passed, I would appreciate it if you could confirm if this has been escalated to an acquisitions or business development manager, or if there is a more direct way for me to contact a human representative who can evaluate this opportunity.

If I am currently communicating with a system that cannot escalate this request, please let me know, and I will seek alternative contact methods for the relevant department.

Thank you for your assistance.

Best regards,

Taseer Ahmed

Hi Tumi,

Thank you for the reply. I want to flag that this is now the fifth or sixth time I've received this same holding message since June 1st — nearly two months with no substantive response on the actual proposal.

Could you please forward this directly to the relevant decision-maker, or share their contact so I can follow up with them myself?

Appreciate your help getting this to the right person.

Best regards,
Taseer Ahmed

Hi Taseer,

Thank you for your patience, and thank you for taking the time to put together and share this proposal with us. We genuinely appreciate the effort you've gone to in curating these domain names and reaching out.

After careful review by our team, I regret to inform you that we will not be moving forward with acquiring any of the proposed domains at this time. This is not a reflection of the quality of your offering, but rather a decision based on our current business priorities and branding direction.

We're sorry for the delay in getting back to you with a clear answer, and we appreciate your understanding.

We wish you the very best.

Kind Regards,

Hi Ibraheem,

Thank you for the clarity on the decision — I respect that, and I understand these calls come down to business priorities.

What I'd genuinely like to understand is what happened on your end over the last two months. I first reached out on June 1st, and from then until now I only received the same automated holding reply, repeatedly, with no indication that the proposal had actually reached anyone who could evaluate it. It was only after I escalated through live chat that I got a substantive response.

I want to be honest with you: part of why I waited so long without pushing harder is that FP Trading is a recognized, established name in this space, so I assumed a proposal like this would be handled professionally and reviewed in a reasonable timeframe. That's exactly why the two-month wait cost me more than it normally would — I held off on approaching other prospects with these domains because I expected a timely answer from a serious, well-known broker.

Was the proposal actually reviewed earlier and simply not communicated, or did it sit unread in the queue until this week? I'd like to understand where the process broke down — partly for my own future outreach, and partly because I think it's worth your team knowing about.

Appreciate your honesty on this.

Best regards,
Taseer Ahmed

Hi Ibraheem,

I am writing to follow up on my previous message. To be completely honest, this entire situation has been extremely stressful and frustrating for me.

For nearly two full months, I continuously received automated replies assuring me that my proposal was under active review by your team. Relying on those official confirmations, finding out after eight weeks that it wasn't evaluated in a timely manner—or was simply sitting in a queue—means I have lost two months of prime business opportunity.

I would really appreciate an honest explanation regarding what went wrong with the process on your end and whether the review was actually taking place or if my ticket was simply stuck in automated loops until I manually escalated it.

Best regards,
Taseer Ahmed

Dear Taseer,

Thank you for your follow-up, and I'm truly sorry for the frustration this experience has caused.

After reviewing your case, I understand why you're disappointed. Your proposal remained open for an extended period while we continued to advise that it was under review, and we appreciate that this delayed your ability to pursue other opportunities.

While I can't comment on the internal handling of the review or confirm exactly where the delay occurred, I can confirm that your feedback has been noted and shared internally. We recognize that you should have received a clear decision much sooner than you did.

We sincerely apologize for the time it took to provide a final response and appreciate your patience throughout the process.

Thank you again for bringing this to our attention, and we wish you all the best with your future business opportunities.

Dear Sofia,

Thank you for your response and for acknowledging that my proposal remained open for an extended period and that I should have received a clear decision much sooner.

I appreciate that my feedback has been shared internally. However, I would respectfully ask FP Trading to understand the practical business impact that this two-month delay has had on me.

During this period, I relied on the repeated assurances that my proposal was under review. Because FP Trading is a recognised and established company in the forex industry, I believed the proposal was being actively considered and therefore delayed pursuing other potential buyers and business opportunities. As a result, I lost approximately two months of valuable time.

I understand that the original decision was based on FP Trading's current business priorities and branding direction. However, considering the length of the delay and the fact that FP Trading has acknowledged that a clear decision should have been provided much sooner, I would respectfully request that the matter be escalated to a senior business development, branding, or acquisitions decision-maker for a final independent review.

I would also appreciate it if FP Trading could consider how it may reasonably help address the impact of this delay. This could include reconsidering whether any of the proposed domains may be relevant to the company's current or future branding needs, or considering an appropriate goodwill gesture in recognition of the time and business opportunity lost.

I am not seeking to create a dispute. I am asking FP Trading to recognise the effect this process has had on my business and to consider a constructive and fair way to help resolve the matter.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from the appropriate manager or department.

Best regards,
Taseer Ahmed

Dear Taseer,

Thank you for your email and for taking the time to explain the impact this matter has had on your business.

We fully understand your concerns and appreciate the opportunity to review your feedback. We sincerely apologise again for the delay in providing a final decision and acknowledge that you should have received a clear response much sooner.

After careful consideration, our position remains unchanged. We will not be reconsidering the original decision regarding the proposed domain names, and we are unfortunately unable to offer a goodwill gesture in relation to this matter.

We appreciate your understanding and respect the perspective you have shared. Your feedback has been recorded and shared internally as part of our ongoing efforts to improve our processes and customer experience.

Thank you once again for bringing this matter to our attention.

We wish you every success with your future business opportunities.

Dear Ibraheem,

Thank you for your response.

I acknowledge your position. However, I cannot agree that this matter is resolved. The loss of approximately two months of valuable business time, resulting from repeated assurances that my proposal was under review, has had a significant impact on my business.

As your team has acknowledged that I should have received a clear decision much sooner, I believe this matter deserves an independent review. I have therefore submitted a formal complaint through the appropriate channel and will await its outcome.

Thank you for your time and assistance throughout this matter.

Kind regards,

Dear Sofia,

I am writing to follow up on my formal complaint.

It has now been eight days since your last email confirming that my complaint would be reviewed independently under FP Trading's Complaints Handling Procedure. Since then, I have sent two follow-up emails requesting an update, but I have not received any response.

I am beginning to feel that my emails are no longer being addressed. After waiting nearly two months for a decision on my original proposal, I am very concerned that the same lack of communication is continuing during the complaints process.

FP Trading has already acknowledged that my proposal should have received a clear decision much sooner. Because I relied on repeated assurances that it was under review, I lost approximately two months of valuable business time and missed opportunities to approach other potential buyers.

An apology alone does not restore the time and business opportunities that were lost. I believe FP Trading should take responsibility for the consequences of its acknowledged service failure and provide appropriate compensation for the unnecessary loss of time caused by the handling of my case.

Please confirm the current status of my complaint, the expected date for a final decision, and whether FP Trading is prepared to provide compensation as part of a fair resolution.

I would appreciate your prompt response.

Kind regards,
Taseer Ahmed
